- this indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.
- the risk category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.
- the risk and reward indicator table demonstrates where a Fund ranks in terms of its potential risk and return. The higher the rank the greater the potential reward but the greater the risk of losing money. The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.
- the Fund appears as a "5" on the scale. This is because the Fund invests in assets that typically carry medium risk and offer medium reward compared with other categories of assets.

The indicator does not take account of the following risks of investing in the Fund:

- the value of investments and the income derived from them may fall as well as rise and you may not get back the original amount invested. Over time, inflation may erode the value of your investments.
- the Fund will typically invest in between 150 and 250 stocks and so it is more concentrated than many other Funds which have greater diversification across a larger number of stocks. This means that the valuation of the Fund may be more volatile as a result of this concentration.
- there will be a variation in performance between Funds with similar objectives due to the different assets selected.
- changes in market conditions may mean that it is not easy to buy or sell investments at a desired time and price.
- the insolvency of any institutions providing services such as safe-keeping of assets or acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments may expose the Fund to financial losses

For full details of the Fund's risks please see Section 5 of the Fund's prospectus.

the Fund aims to achieve a return consisting of both income and capital growth which, after all fees and expenses, exceeds the MSCI Emerging Markets TR Index over the medium to long term (defined as 5 to 10 years).

Policy:

- the Fund intends to invest at least 80% in the equity securities of Emerging Markets companies defined as those which are domiciled, incorporated or have a significant exposure to Emerging markets
- the fund will adopt a flexible approach to investment, seeking to invest in companies that are undervalued relative to their economic potential. Exposure to small and medium size companies will be greater than 50% of the Fund. Small and medium sized companies are defined as those with a market cap of $10 billion or less at the time of the Fund's investment. Companies whose capitalisation no longer meets this definition after investment will continue to be considered small and medium market capitalisation companies.
- the Fund may also invest in other transferable securities (for example, equity securities of other international companies), units in collective investment schemes (including schemes managed and operated by the ACD or its associates), money market instruments, warrants, cash and near cash deposits as detailed in the Prospectus.
- it is envisaged that the investment portfolio of the Fund will be concentrated, typically comprising between 40 and 60 holdings.
- Derivatives may be used for the purposes of hedging and efficient portfolio management.

Other information:

- Emerging markets are countries that are progressing toward becoming advanced, usually shown by some development in financial markets, the existence of some form of stock exchange and regulatory body.
- the performance of the Fund will be measured against the MSCI Emerging Markets TR Index for comparator and target return purposes only. This index was chosen as it was considered a fair representation of the assets in which the fund is able to invest, in line with its policy.
- the investment manager has discretion to select the Fund's investments and is not constrained by a benchmark.
- the Fund intends to pay any income from your investments out to you twice a year.
- investors' requests to buy, sell or switch shares will be carried out at midday on each working day (which excludes UK public holidays). A request received after midday will be dealt with on the next working day.
- recommendation: this Fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within five to ten years and should be regarded as a long-term investment.
- upon the sale of your shares, especially in the short-term, you may receive less than the original amount you invested.

- this indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.
- the risk category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.
- the risk and reward indicator table demonstrates where a Fund ranks in terms of its potential risk and return. The higher the rank the greater the potential reward but the greater the risk of losing money. The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.
- the Fund appears as a "5" on the scale. This is because the Fund invests in assets that typically carry medium risk and offer medium reward compared with other categories of assets.

The indicator does not take account of the following risks of investing in the Fund:

- the value of investments and the income derived from them may fall as well as rise and you may not get back the original amount invested. Over time, inflation may erode the value of your investments.
- the Fund will typically invest in between 40 and 60 stocks and so it is more concentrated than many other Funds which have greater diversification across a larger number of stocks. This means that the valuation of the Fund may be more volatile as a result of this concentration.
- there will be a variation in performance between Funds with similar objectives due to the different assets selected.
- changes in market conditions may mean that it is not easy to buy or sell investments at a desired time and price.
- the insolvency of any institutions providing services such as safe-keeping of assets or acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments may expose the Fund to financial losses

Other information:

RISK AND REWARD PROFILE

< Lower Risk

Typically lower rewards

Higher Risk >

Typically higher rewards

1	2	3	4	5	6	7

- this indicator is based on historical data and may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the Fund.
- the risk category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and may shift over time.
- the risk and reward indicator table demonstrates where a Fund ranks in terms of its potential risk and return. The higher the rank the greater the potential reward but the greater the risk of losing money. The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.
- the Fund appears as a "3" on the scale. This is because the Fund invests in fixed income instruments whose values don't fluctuate widely.

The indicator does not take account of the following risks of investing in the Fund:

- the value of investments and the income derived from them may fall as well as rise and you may not get back the original amount invested. Over time, inflation may erode the value of your investments.
- the value of bonds tend to decrease when interest rates and/or inflation rises. This means that the valuation of the Fund may be more volatile as a result of this concentration.
- when investment is made in international companies values can go up and down because of changes in currencyexchange rates.
- there is a risk that the issuers of bonds may not be able to repay the money they have borrowed nor make any interest payments.
- there will be a variation in performance between Funds with similar objectives due to the different assets selected.
- changes in market conditions may mean that it is not easy to buy or sell investments at a desired time and price.
- the insolvency of any institutions providing services such as safe-keeping of assets or acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments may expose the Fund to financial losses
